

About the Charlotte County Jazz Society

The Charlotte County Jazz Society is a nonprofit organization dedicated to preserving and promoting jazz music. We host numerous jazz concerts and events from October through April each year. Revenue from our events support our scholarship program to assist local high school students pay for their advanced education in music.

As a Jazz Society member you will, each year, enjoy admission without additional charge to performances by the finest professional jazz artists around. You will also receive a quarterly digital newsletter covering the jazz scene in Charlotte County and around Southwest Florida. Non-members are welcome at all our events as well.

Go to our website to view our activities and upcoming events as well as information about scholarships, membership, special events and jazz around our community and Southwest Florida.

Becoming a member of the Charlotte County Jazz Society is easy . . . just visit our "Become a Member" page on the site and download an application or simply fill out the form to join.
