Congratulations to our 2025-2026 Scholarship Winners

Congratulations to our 2025-2026 scholarship winners! At our April 13 concert, CCJS President Jordan Aquila and Scholarship Committee Chairman James Mashburn awarded scholarships to four talented students, Lily Aaronson, $4000, Sydney Bowers, $2000, Matt Hedge, $2000, and Kanyon Patalano, $2000. Each recipient demonstrated exceptional skill and dedication to their musical craft, impressing judges and audiences alike. These scholarships will provide them with invaluable opportunities to further their education and hone their talents.

We are incredibly proud of these young musicians and excited to see how they will continue to grow and contribute to the world of music.

An Evening With Al and Zoot

On April 13, we wrapped up our 2025-2026 season with a final concert that celebrated the vibrant music of Al and Zoot. The stage came alive with the saxophonic magic of the dynamic duo, Lew Del Gatto and Len Pierro. Many of us had eagerly awaited this last concert, and the performance exceeded all expectations. Rounding out the ensemble were Ken Levinsky on piano, Don Mopsick on bass, and Eddie Metz on drums, creating an unforgettable jazz experience.

A MELODIOUS EVENING

Our March 9 concert at The Gulf Theater at the Military Heritage Museum provided the perfect backdrop for a melodious evening with The Midiri Brothers. Joining Joe Midiri on clarinet, saxophones and vocals were Paul Midiri on vibraphone, Jeff Phillips on piano, Jay Mueller on bass, and Patricia Dean on drums and vocals.

The quintet's deep appreciation for the instrumental jazz tradition shone through as they navigated a variety of standards from the Great American Songbook and classic jazz favorites. Their dynamic interplay and the band's swinging tempos contributed to a truly joyous night.

Notes from the President's Desk – April 2026

Dear Members and Jazz Enthusiasts,

A Season of High Notes

It has been a truly wonderful season so far, and the energy at our concerts has been nothing short of electric. As we move into the final stretch of our current series, the “rhythm” of our organization is stronger than ever thanks to your continued support. Even as we enjoy these final performances, we are already hard at work behind the scenes planning our next season's concert performers and venues.

Your voice is essential to our harmony. If you have any ideas or feedback from this past season regarding the acts we brought in or the facilities we used, please reach out to me directly at president@cc-jazz.org. We base many of our future plans and ideas on the feedback we receive from you, our members.

Expanding Our Community Reach

We are making fantastic connections with other organizations and businesses throughout Charlotte County. To further our mission of preserving and promoting jazz music, we are excited to announce a new community service: we are now offering to help individuals and organizations hire professional jazz musicians for their own live events. Whether it's a corporate gathering or a private celebration, we want to ensure that live jazz remains a vibrant part of our local culture. You can find more information on this initiative on our website at cc-jazz.org.

Strengthening Our Leadership

While we have recently added two new members to our Board of Directors with fantastic new perspectives, our growth requires a consistently dedicated team. We are still in need of more board members to help guide the future of the Jazz Society. If you have a passion for the arts and a desire to help us modernize our outreach and ensure we remain a cultural pillar, please reach out to me via email to discuss how you can contribute your talents.

A Grand Finale: April 13th

There is no better way to celebrate our progress than by looking toward the future. We are excited to close out our season on Monday, April 13, at the Gulf Theater at Military Heritage Museum. The season finale concert will be a true highlight, as we will be announcing our Scholarship winners for the year. Supporting these exceptional young, local musicians is at the very heart of our mission.

In addition to the scholarship announcements, we will finally award the winner of our Art Raffle that has been running all season long. Let's fill the hall one last time this season and show our guests the strength of the jazz community here in Charlotte County.

Keep swinging and thank you for being a part of our Society!

Jordan Aquila

Mission Statement of CCJS

The Mission of the Charlotte County Jazz Society is to increase the availability of Jazz music in our county and to foster the study and appreciation of this original American art form, especially among the youth of our community.

We seek to continually develop and improve upon our monthly concert series which showcases some of the finest jazz performers from throughout the state of Florida. We strive to broaden exposure to jazz among the general public through live performances at community festivals and other local events which reach a wide audience.

CCJS works to serve as a source of information about jazz activities throughout our area by informing local news media, publishing a Society newsletter, and providing a telephone hotline.

We seek to provide continuing aid to middle school and high school students furthering their jazz education and awarding college scholarships on a competitive basis to promising students.

We strive to further expose our area youth to jazz music by admitting local students free of charge to our monthly concert series and jazz jams.

YOU CAN BECOME A LEGACY SUPPORTER

Charlotte County Jazz Society is deeply grateful to former members Marjorie Jean Biermann, Helen Langdon, Donatella and Ken Neumann, and Roberta Gasparri. Their generous bequests now play a major role in helping fund the outstanding jazz artists brought to our community by CCJS. They have also been instrumental in supporting our commitment to pass on our love of jazz with the awarding of annual scholarships to graduating high school seniors. We invite you to join us in our mission to preserve, promote and present live jazz by including CCJS in your will, trust, retirement account or life insurance policy, or with a donation to CCJS in honor or memory of a fellow jazz lover. For more detailed information, please contact any CCJS officer or director as listed on the last page.

Become a CCJS supporter:

Our membership fees cover less than half of the cost to produce our concerts. We undertake various fund-raising efforts during the year to supplement these but inevitable we need to use assets from our endowment to balance the budget. We strive to keep our membership fees as low as they are to allow those with limited incomes to enjoy our shows. If you are fortunate enough to afford it please consider additional donations to our endowment fund. You may earmark your donation for support of our jazz performances or for the support our educational/scholarship programs.
